Sponsorship

ISWC is the major international forum where the latest research results and technical innovations on all aspects of the Semantic Web are presented. The International Semantic Web Conference (ISWC) series is organized and managed by the Semantic Web Science Association (SWSA). As in previous years, we are offering the opportunity to sponsor the conference and associated events.

ISWC2014 will take place in Riva del Garda, Trento, Italy, 19th to 23rd of October 2014. The event is expected to draw over 500 participants from all over the world.

If you have any questions about sponsorship opportunities do not hesitate to contact the Sponsorship Chairs, Jens Lehmann at lehmann@informatik.uni-leipzig.de or Roberta Cuel at roberta.cuel@unitn.it.
